An abstract geometric design on an orange background. The design features a central vertical black line that intersects with a horizontal black line. From the intersection point, several yellow and black triangular shapes radiate outwards, creating a star-like or compass-like pattern. The yellow shapes are solid, while the black shapes are also solid, creating a high-contrast, geometric composition.

ORGANIZATIONS

Sage Staff Knows All And Keeps No Secrets

The school newspaper, the Sage, and its staff have been very successful this year. Most of the events at C.H.S. were published and even a few secret happenings were printed. Some of the regular features were the editorial, song dedications, class news, and others. Nanette Dayton was the editor under the direction of the advisor, Miss Claudia Beck.

Some shocking news just came in!

The editor, Nanette Dayton (above) contributed her all to the staff. Much of her time and effort went into her position. The two pictures to the right show activities that are common to many Sage meetings.

This Book The Product Of Careful Planning

And Hard Work

This year's staff put all their efforts into creating a good yearbook. This included doing and redoing. The editor Lana Bailey, kept things running smoothly with the help of the business manager, Rowleen Johns. In the fall the staff took its annual ad trips to Kemmerer and Montpelier. These trips were functional and also very enjoyable. The advisor over the 70-71 Ram-bouillet was Mr. Lyle Wagstaff.

This year they had a show for their money making project. Rick Petersen was elected to serve as the president.

This year the Panther Pepclub started out its activities with a tea to initiate the new members. The club's president was Rowleen Johns, and Mrs. Bette Rentfro was the advisor. Homecoming was one of the big events and this year, the girls were each a big sister to a player on the football team. They decorated lockers and brought goodies to pep the team up for the homecoming game. The club supported all the athletic teams at the games and matches.

They kept the halls full of posters and the fans full of spirit. The head cheerleaders were Cheryl Petersen and Kathy Knouse. Some of the activities were pep rallies, spirit week, and a car wash.

The Cokeville High Steppers Thrill Crowd

This year was a good one for the Pantherettes. They put many hours of preparation into the half time routines. They marched at all the home games despite the weather and occasional sore muscles. They also performed at several away games. Nanette Dayton was the president. Some of the hi-lights were the Finale, the Pantherette banquet, and the Homecoming parade.

Norene Thompson is "Commander-in-Chief".

Pantherettes show loyalty with "Panther Paws".

Lana Bailey was chosen "Outstanding Pantherette" for 70-71.

This being their last year together the seniors wanted to make it one of many memories. They turned the auditorium into a "Winter World of Love" with beautiful pine trees and lacy snowflakes.

Their play, "Finders Creepers" will be remembered by all.

Before they knew it, the year was over and graduation had arrived.

1971 had brought an end to familiar surroundings and a beginning to a new, unpredictable future.

Juniors

This year's Juniors will be remembered as one of the toughest, meanest, and funniest classes of '71'.

Under the direction of Mr. Dana and Mrs. Dayton, they performed their play "The Beverly Hillbillies" which was a SMASH.

The Junior Prom was decorated around the theme "Love Story" with mint green and ice blue.

Now, after this busy year they will be prepared for their Senior year, graduation and the other important activities of 1972.

This year's Sophomores were active in all sports and other school activities. They were a major cause to the headaches and frustrations of Miss Beck in type class as well as to other nameless teachers.

They decorated their Hop to the theme of "I'll be There". Under the direction of Mr. Forrest, their adviser, they made their dance a big success and had a great year.

They are now looking forward to being Juniors next year, where they will be busier than they could have thought possible.

Being a freshmen meant being considered last for duties that everyone wanted and first for those no one else would take.

This year's freshmen were active in cheerleading, Pantherettes, basketball, football and other school activities. Many offices of next year and the coming years will be held by this active and interested class.

This year holds many memorable experiences for the freshmen and the entire student body of C.H.S. thanks to the vitality of the freshmen.

Panthers Gain Valuable Experience

Panthers In Action

The Panthers got off to a slow start this season but improved with each game. By the end of the season, the team had compiled a respectable record which included third place in the regional tournament.

The National Honor Society is an organization in which the members must have a high grade point average and leadership ability.

The decorating of the town and goal posts was the starting of a big day for the Panthers. A pep assembly was held and the King and Queen for 1971-1972 were announced. Rowleen Johns and Johnny Martinez were chosen to reign as the Homecoming Royalty.

The after event was a parade. Every class and organization worked hard on their float to make the parade a big affair.

A large crowd attended the football game between the Panthers and the Lyman Eagles. It was a good game even though the Panthers lost.

Last but not least was the homecoming dance with the theme of "Panther Pride". The King and Queen reigned at the dance.

Grade School Pleasures

I can't believe how good this food tastes.

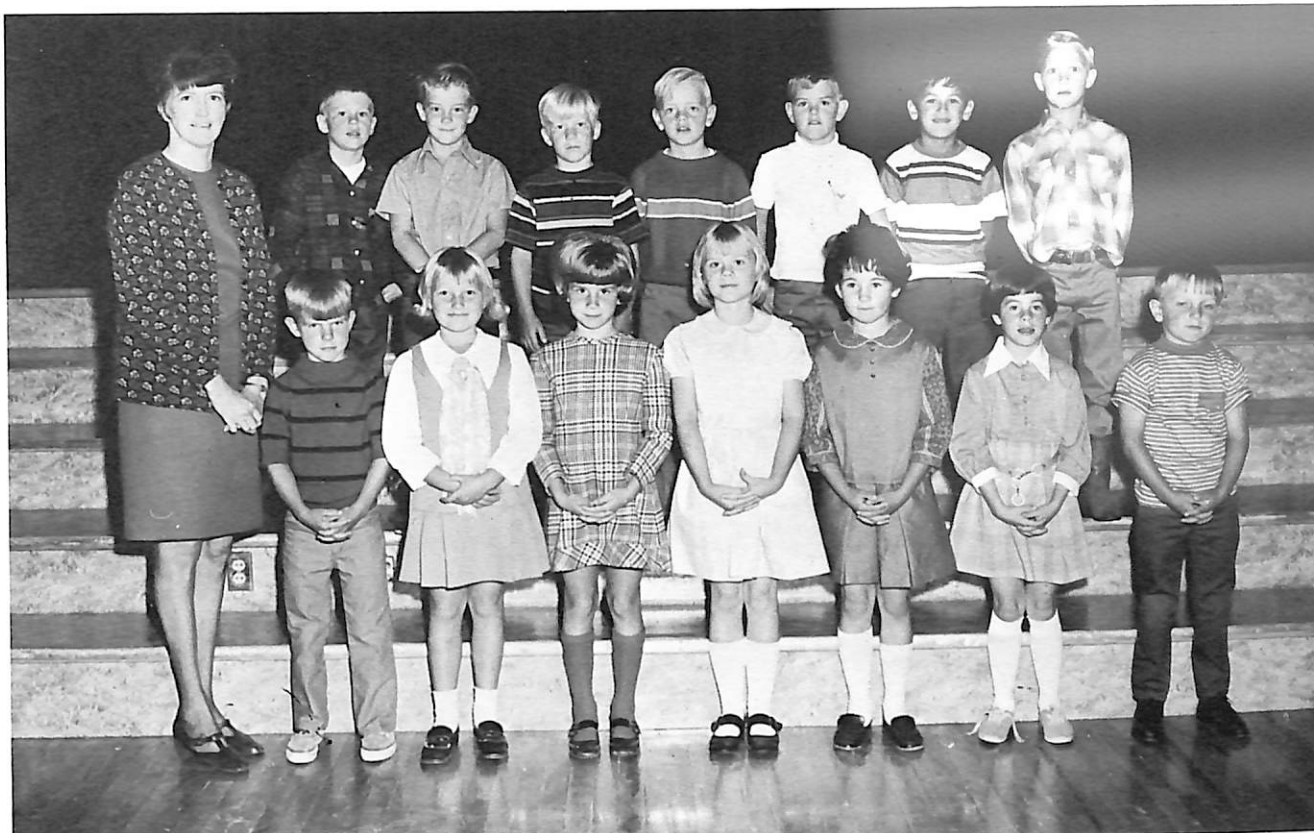

Wow! It sure is getting hot in here.

These slides are getting more crowded everyday.

The first and second grades are the youngest. They have a lot to learn and a long road to travel in life. There are many examples set for them to follow. Let us hope they are good ones.
