In Recognition of Outside Contributors

This is a thankful tribute to our local, non-student photographers who attended school events and contributed multiple images to this yearbook. Since most students participate on sports teams, it is often difficult to find available student photographers to travel and capture the needed pictures of games, matches, and events. Some of the best photography this year has been taken and shared by parents (both moms and dads), staff, and others who made the effort to get the photos.

A SPECIAL and HEART-FELT THANK YOU to Karla Toomer, Gail Johnson, Bill Thompson, and Jason Murdock who so willingly shared photos to help our yearbook coverage. You are true fans of CHS students, newspaper, and yearbook.

CHS Volleyball

Spring Musical - Anything Goes

As lead in Anything Goes, senior Emily Sparks (as Reno Sweeney) reacts to some dialogue in a musical scene.

This year's spring musical was Anything Goes. The storyline is about a boy named Billy Crocker who sneaks aboard a cruise ship to try and win back his old love, Hope Harcourt.

Billy then finds Moonface Martin, public enemy number thirteen, and Erma, Moonface's assistant. Together, they try to win Hope's heart back by doing some crazy things, including disguising themselves. In the end, Billy wins Hope's love, and they live happily ever after.

A special thanks to director Andrea Petersen, Nannette Cook, and Marti Warner for making the production possible. Everyone involved put in hours of hard work to make the show a success. Participants report that the play was very fun.

The beautiful Fallen Angels say "Hello" in this scene.

An enthusiastic Rick Nate (Evelyn Oakley) proclaims his love to Reno Sweeny.

Michael Moyes (John) and Devan Moody (Luke) ham it up for their Chinese roles.

Janetta Teichert (Erma) has all the soldiers on board in love with her.

Antheny Petersen (Moonface Martin) enjoys being a gangster in the play.

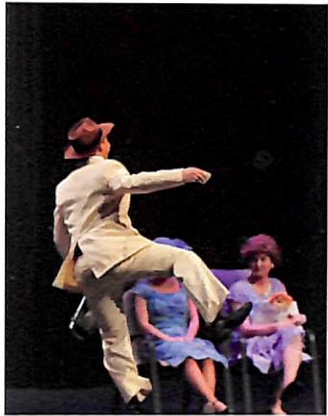

Kaycee Linford (mother Evangeline Harcourt) is scared for her life. "That man just tried to kill me with that thing," she says.

(Left) Dallin Hatch (Billy Crocker) and Katelyn Petersen (Hope Harcourt) execute some nice dance moves to perfection.

(Below) Moonface and Billy crash the wedding in disguise and style.

"Yippee!!" shouts Dallin as Billy.

"Come on my dear, there's ice cream on that table over there," says Rick Nate as Hope's husband to be.

Katelyn Petersen can't stop thinking about that special someone...

Reno Sweeney puts on a show for the passengers of the cruise ship.

Rick Nate (Evelyn) hears something outside and he's not going down without a fight.

More Musical

The sailors take orders from the captain. "Drop and give me fifty"!

Katelyn Petersen, Dallin Hatch and Emily Sparks give the crowd one last bow.

A crooning Dylan Moody has a good time in the musical this year.

Dallin Hatch (Billy) realizes that acting and singing are fun.

Emily thanks director Andrea Petersen for all she did to help the musical.

Meet Your Yearbook & Newspaper Staff

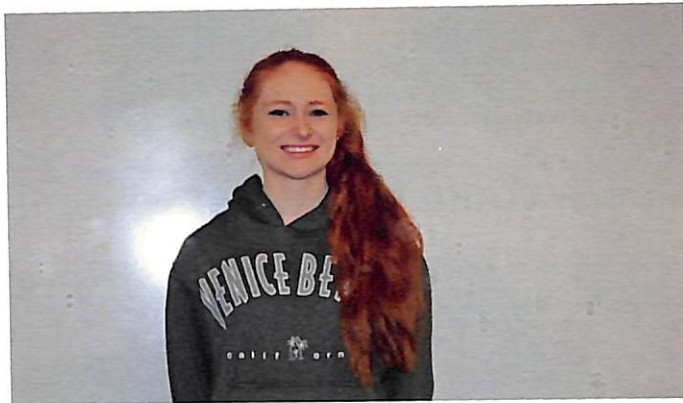

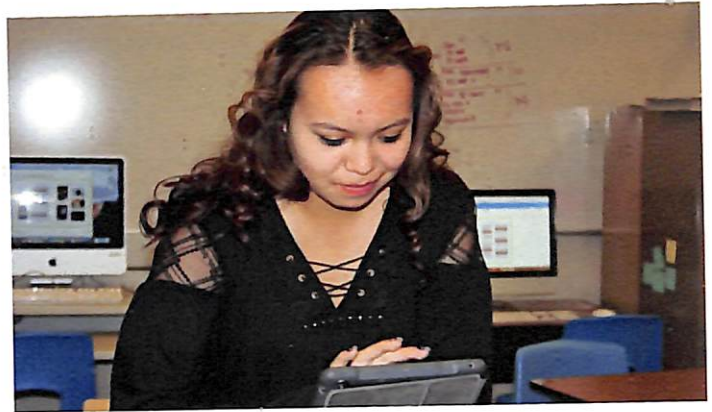

Dallin Hatch

This is Dallin's second year doing yearbook. As yearbook editor, Dallin is by far the hardest worker in the class. In his spare time, he loves to go squatch hunting, watch Star Wars and listen to Enya.

Cheyenne Reed

This is Cheyenne Reed's second year on staff. The yearbook was a huge success over the last two years thanks to Cheyenne, particularly for her help with technology.

Savannah Phillips

This is Savannah Phillips second year on the staff. She enjoys spending all her time looking up photos of her boyfriend and loves to run.

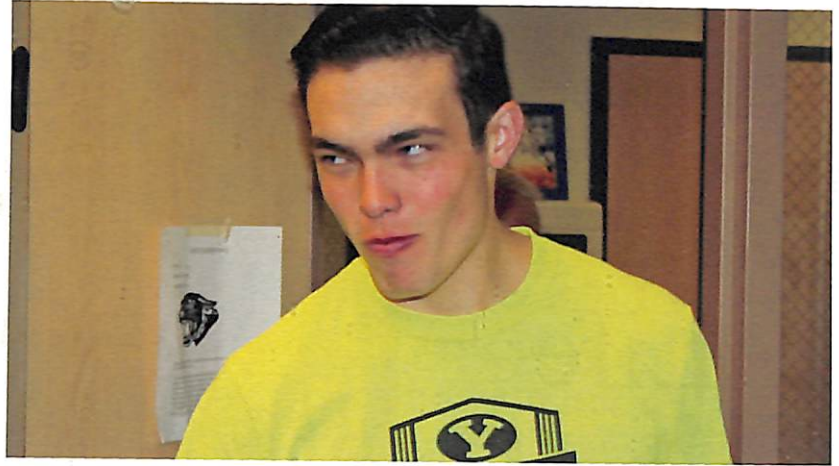

Seth Toomer

Seth Toomer came into yearbook second semester after returning from D.C where he worked as a Page for a senator. Seth works hard and has shown leadership to get the work done.

Rick Nate

This is Rick Nate's first year in yearbook. He enjoys taking pictures and chasing errands for the class. In his spare time Rick loves spending quality time with his lady friend (Kassidy King) and combing his hair.

Brittney Bowen

While this is also Britney's first year in yearbook, she has proved herself an asset to the staff with editing and writing captions for pictures. After school Britney loves playing volleyball and chasing boys.

Burgandy Huntington

In her first year working in yearbook, Burgandy loves doing surveys and helping in the back ground. Outside of school she loves to show her fluffy cows and chase boys.

Life as a Senate Page

by Seth Toomer

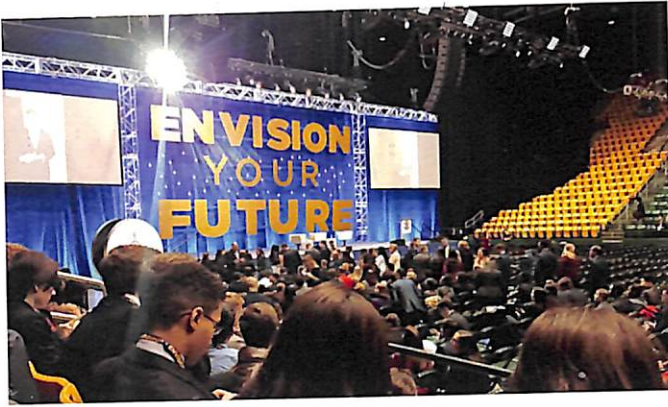

My day started at 4:00 a.m. everyday, 5-6 days a week. Most people probably don't know that there was a four in the morning. Well, let me tell you there most certainly is. For the first semester of school, I had the privilege of traveling, and living, and working in Washington D.C. as a Page of the United States Senate. No, not a page like in a book, but a Page, a position of poise and hard-work in the United States Senate. And the fun part was, I would be awake at four in the morning, every work-day.

School started at 6 a.m. and proceeded until 10. After school, all 30 of us from across the United States would go to work at the Senate. Our work includes, setting up and taking down the senate floor with all the proper paperwork for the day's proceedings; Running bills, amendments, votes, calendars and countless other items around the Capital and its adjacent office buildings. (3 additional office buildings we had to know).

After work ended (usually around 6 p.m.) we were assigned a consistent 4 hours of homework on a daily basis, and with the addition of dinner the average time we went to bed was about 11 p.m. That totals to about 5 hours of sleep, everyday. A rough life, but with all the invigorating and moving things that happened on the Senate Floor, we overcame what most would call "sleep deprivation" and accomplished all the tasks that we had throughout the week.

Senior Wills

Hanna Helm - if you are not listed belowwheelp that is unfortunate. All-righty so to Tristan and Brayden, I give both of you my ski collection. To Britney and Lexi, I give my artistic skills. Hopefully, you two can put them to better use than I did. Kassidy King, I give you my eyelashes. Best of luck ever finding a pair of sunglasses that they won't hit the lenses on. Bowen, I guess you can have my car. Treat her good. Hunter, you get the turbos out of my car. Yoli, Darling, I gift to you my makeup skills. Fair warning they might be slightly less than what you thought they where. Andrew Thomas, you can have my amazing Spanish-speaking abilities. Kaylee, to you I give my welding abilities but only if you promise to use them to show up all the boys. And, last but not least, to Ammon I give you my amazing sense of offending people. Hopefully, you will be able to put it to better use.

Emily Sparks - I, Emily Sparks, being of sound mind, and at least 18 years old, would like to make the following wishes known. I direct that my family, friends, teachers, and all others follow the directions I am writing down. Without further adieu, I will my beautiful white Pontiac GrandAm to Tristan Nate. I will my fantastic parking skills to Cheyenne Reed. To Alley McKinnon, Mr. Scott Thomas shall receive my coveted Rose Gold iPhone 6S. I will my purple calculator cover to Mrs. Keetch. To Mr. Linford I will my leaping abilities. I will my flexibility to the beautiful Kaylee Cornia. I will my eyebrows to Hanna Martha Helm. My hair extensions I will to Sterling Murdock. To Devan Moody, I will my white Converse shoes. To Mr. Tims, I will my second-place medals. FINALLY, to Antheny Glenn Petersen, I will my bath bombs and my room so he can turn it into a man cave.

Dallin Hatch - I will all my BYU gear to Treyson Dayton. My Lebron Jersey goes to Wyatt Awtry. My 2,000 skills are for Bentley Johnson. My sick handles to Michael Moyes. My shooting ability to the Yeti. My endless supply of white cakes to Devan Moody because white cakes are the bomb and I never run out. My height goes to Katelyn Petersen. Use it well because there's not much. My red truck to Blake Thornock. And ,my good looks to Sterling "Bruce" Murdock.

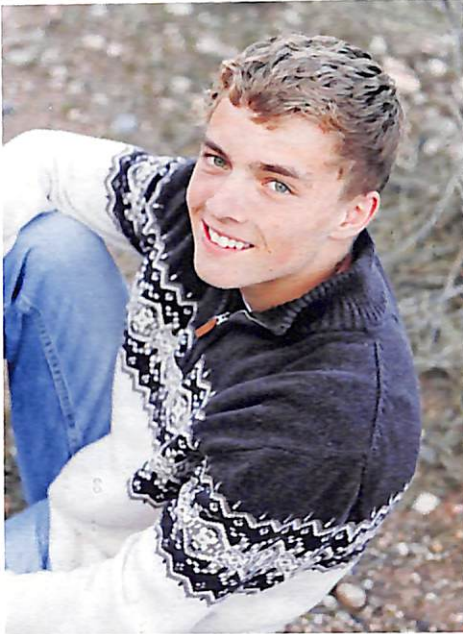

Savannah Phillips - I wish for only one thing. I wish to promote Cienna Halls to be the ginger Mafia in my place. The Ginger Mafia has been a tradition for years as founded by Johnathan Fiscus. If any of you find any of my stuff, keep, it :)

Dylan Moody - I will my iPad to myself. I will my amazing math abilities to Wyatt Awtry and Alisen Petersen. My amazing "Studio C" quotes go to Dakota King, yeehaw. I will Kassidy King my favorite jacket and my ability to watch movies for countless hours on end. I will the "Chick magnet Van" to Sterling Murdock. I will my, electric guitar to Kendra Cook. I will my awesome personality to Yoli. I will my tuba to Michael Moyes. I will all the food I have in my locker to McKennah. I will all my randomness to the freshman class, even though they are already random. I will my backpack to Mrs. Keetch. I will my ability to laugh at any time to Austin. "

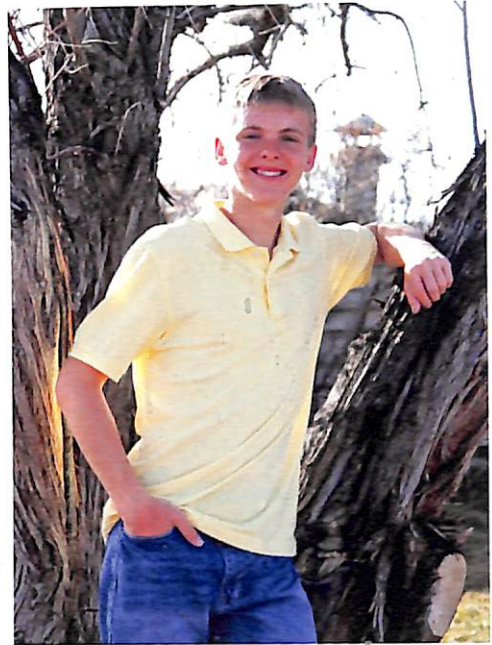

Cheyenne Reed - I will my essay-writing skills to Burgundy Huntington and Trey Donahue. My locker goes to the next lucky senior. My art I will to whomever wants it. My wide variety of music goes to everyone. My slight caffeine addiction, I will to Brandon; which includes finding the money to buy them. I will the privilege of being Mr. Thomas' TA next year to the next junior who has great organizational skills. I will my notes for the constitutional test to any junior who finds them, or you can fight over them.

Trenton King - I, Trenton King, by the power invested in me, hereby will my J's and unibrow to Cordell Russell Viewheg. My beard goes to Brayden. I also will my big toes to Seth Toomer. At the conclusion of this randomness, I will everything else to my man "Dirty Hatch."

U.S. PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION & DEBATES

In the lead up to Donald Trump's win of the 2016 U.S. Presidential Election, 84 million people watched the first 2016 Presidential Debate between Donald Trump and Hillary Clinton, 66.5 million watched the second and 71.6 million the third, say the Nielsen ratings. That's two out of the three most watched Presidential debates on record.

DUMPING ICY WATER ON ALS

In the summer of 2014 the "Ice Bucket Challenge" raised $115 million in eight weeks. These donations, that helped fund more research, have paid off. The specific gene responsible for ALS has been identified, which brings scientists one step closer to discovering a cure.

FAKE NEWS FLOOD

In the wake of the 2016 U.S. Presidential election, Americans became aware of a growing problem with the news media. Many political news stories widely shared on social media websites were discovered to be fake. Whether the spread of such stories influenced the political opinion in any significant way is still under investigation.

NATURAL DISASTERS

Every year has its share of reminders that humans are still at the mercy of the forces of nature, and this year was no different. In August, Louisiana suffered a devastating flood, the result of more than 31 inches of rainfall in 15 hours. It was the worst natural disaster since Hurricane Sandy. In September, Hurricane Matthew moved through the Caribbean, eventually traveling along the Eastern coastal region of the U.S. In all, the Hurricane resulted in 49 deaths and around $6 billion in damage. In November, Winter Storm Argos let fall 54 inches of snow in Central New York, and in Binghamton, NY it became the largest snowstorm since 1905.

ZIKA THREAT REMAINS

The Zika virus, transmitted to humans by mosquitoes, is linked to birth defects, putting pregnant women most at risk for contraction. The virus first became known to U.S. citizens from its widely publicized outbreak in Brazil, which gave rise to a flood of travel warnings. Although the World Health Organization declared that Zika is no longer a global emergency, the threat has spread to U.S. soil, both to Florida and Texas, prompting the Center for Disease Control to issue an advisory against travel for pregnant women to certain counties in these states.

CRISIS IN ALEPPO

Over the last two decades, the Battle for Aleppo has grown out of the Syrian Civil war. Rebel forces in conflict with Syrian Forces advanced on Aleppo in February 2012, turning the city into an increasingly embattled warzone. Since then, civilian deaths have reached into the tens of thousands. In December 2016, a ceasefire was declared between the rebel groups and government-backed forces, and the evacuation of the rebels and their families followed.

BOB DYLAN WINS NOBEL PRIZE

The Nobel Prize committee awarded Bob Dylan the Nobel Prize for Literature, becoming the first musician to win the prize. Traditionally reserved for creators of written works, the prize was given to Dylan for "having created new poetic expressions within the great American song tradition."

YAHOO! SUFFERS HISTORIC SECURITY BREACH

BRITAIN VOTES TO LEAVE EU

On June 23, more than 30 million British citizens voted on a referendum on whether Britain should leave the European Union (EU). 52% voted for leaving. The implications of Britain's decision to leave the EU are far reaching, both economically and socially. So far, experts have no easy answers for the how, why, or even when this will play out.

THE BABIES ACT

President Obama signed into law a bill that requires government buildings to install baby changing stations not only in women's restrooms, but in men's restrooms as well. The bill, called the BABIES Act, received bipartisan support, and was the result of recognizing the growing place of men in the basic duties of child care.

RECORD HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATION RATE

The end of the 2015-2016 school year marked a high point for educators, students and parents throughout the U.S., when more students successfully graduated than in any previous year. It was the fifth record-setting year in a row, raising the high school graduation rate to an all-time high of 84%.

MALL OF AMERICA GOES DARK ON THANKSGIVING

The Mall of America, the U.S.'s biggest indoor mall, decided to keep its doors closed on Thanksgiving. This meant turning consumers away on the eve of Black Friday, the biggest consumer spending day of the year. The move came at no small cost, but benefited the many employees, allowing them to spend the holiday with friends and family.

DAKOTA ACCESS PIPELINE

The Dakota Access Pipeline is a proposed project to install a pipeline between North Dakota and Illinois. The pipeline would transport 570,000 barrels of crude oil a day harvested from North Dakota's Bakken Shale. The project has come under controversy, with protesters objecting that the pipeline endangers sections of the Missouri River, a primary source of drinking water of the Native American Sioux Tribe. Responding to safety concerns, the Department of the Army declared that it will discover and use an alternative pipeline route. Removing much uncertainty around the future of the project, President Trump, in the week after taking office, issued a Presidential Memorandum effectively permitting the completion of pipeline.

A GREAT YEAR... A FEW GREAT LOSSES

Among the triumphs and joy of the year, we also lost a few of humanity's best. Among them, actor Carrie Fisher; musician Prince; athlete Muhammad Ali; and astronaut John Glenn.

HEART-TO-HEART

By growing heart muscle cells in the lab from stem cells donated by a healthy macaque monkey, scientists have successfully regenerated the damaged heart of another macaque monkey. Scientists involved in the study think human trials are likely in a few years, and could pave the way to curing many forms of heart disease.

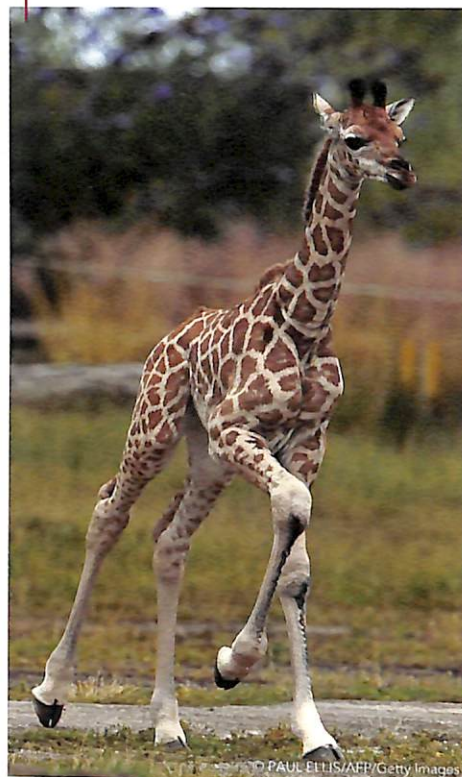

HEALTHY, WOOLY AND WISE

In 1996, Dolly the Sheep started out her life unlike most sheep, in a test tube as a clone. She became a scientific media phenomenon, and potential evidence that cloning methods worked. Six years later she was put to rest after tumors were found in her lung. Her premature death left in its wake questions about whether clones could live healthy lives. Now, 20 years later, it looks like the question has been answered. Daisy, Diana, Debbie, and Denise are sheep cloned from the same cell line as Dolly, but unlike her, have aged into their senior years, as healthy as any non-cloned sheep.

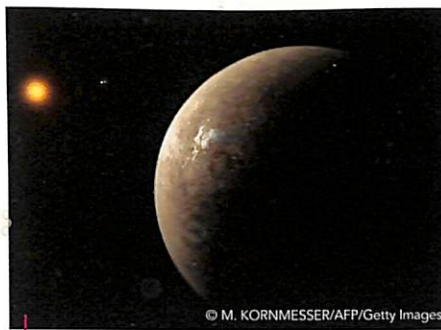

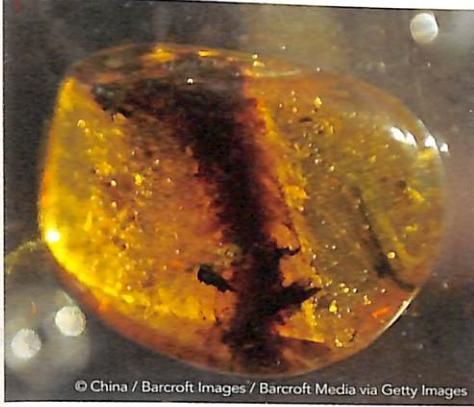

NEW GIRAFFE SPECIES SPOTTED

A new study analyzing the DNA of 190 giraffes across Africa revealed an unexpected fact. What was formerly thought to be a single species of giraffe turns out to be not one, but four species: the southern giraffe; the Masai giraffe; the reticulated giraffe, and the northern giraffe.

FEATHERS FROM THE PREHISTORIC PAST

The feathers of a dinosaur's tail was discovered preserved in a 99-million-year-old piece of amber, marking the first time dinosaur material has been found preserved in such a way. Lida Xing, a geoscientist from China University, found the specimen for sale at an amber market in Myanmar.

GOLDILOCKS PLANET DISCOVERED

Proxima B could be a potentially Earth-like, habitable, and life-containing planet located in the vicinity of Proxima Centauri. At 24.94 trillion miles away, this makes it the nearest star to our own solar system. Proxima B is in a "Goldilocks" region that allows for the possibility of both life and water in its liquid state. In other words, it's not so distant from its own sun that it's too cold, but not so close that it's too hot.

LOOSENING PARALYSIS' GRIP

Advancing scientific research is helping those afflicted with paralysis. A man, once paralyzed from the chest down, is now able to play a computerized guitar with the aid of a computer chip implanted in his brain. Another, a quadriplegic, is now able to manipulate a robotic hand and feel pressure from its fingertips.

CRISPR GENE EDITING

CRISPR, a new tool developed by scientists is paving the way to a world in which we can cure any disease, prevent any infections, and design organisms from the ground up. CRISPR genome editing technology, which allows for the precise and direct manipulation of specific genes, has the potential to transform the field of biology and the power of medicine.

HUMANS ON MARS BY 2030?

Working toward bringing humans to Mars, NASA is developing ways to keep humans alive on their journey to the Red Planet, their stay, and then the return trip back to Earth. One such method may be the use of a newly discovered Martian ice deposit, which contains as much water as Lake Superior, the largest freshwater lake on Earth.

HEY, I'M (STILL) DRIVING HERE!

Tesla and Uber unleashed the first wave of self-driving cars onto U.S. roadways. While some Tesla models include all the onboard technology to fully pilot themselves, regulations restrict them from taking full control. For now, the self-automated vehicles are limited to managing their own speed, parking themselves, and changing lanes.

HOME, SMART HOME

Google and Amazon widened their reach into consumer's homes this year. Amazon's tech, called "Echo," and Google's, "Google Home," are low-profile, speaker-like devices, waiting to supply information or carry out commands. For example, users can order the delivery of goods and services, schedule events, ask questions, dim lights, or have music or video played on connected devices.

SAMSUNG NOTABLE PHONE RECALL

Users of Samsung's Note 7 smartphone began reporting explosions of the device while charging. This prompted the South Korean company to suspend sales and urge owners to exchange the device for non-faulty units. An official recall was issued in September by the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission. The device was eventually discontinued, and the U.S. Federal Aviation Commission and Department of Transportation deemed it a hazard and banned it from all flights. The recall and discontinuation affected over 2 million devices and cost Samsung an estimated $17 billion in revenue.

NO MORE WAITING IN LINE

Amazon, known for its online retail and web services, opened a brick-and-mortar grocery store to revolutionize the "good, old-fashioned" shopping experience. Its Seattle-based "Amazon Go" test store enables shoppers to enter the store, pick up items and then walk out, all without waiting in a line or interacting with a cashier. Everything is tracked, charged, and handled automatically through an app on your smartphone.

WHERE IS REALITY HEADED?

Two new innovated, related technologies, "mixed or augmented reality" and "virtual reality," are starting to grab public attention. Both use "head mounted displays"—basically computer displays strapped to users' heads like glasses or goggles—to project information onto real world objects or allow for total immersion into digital space. The equipment is still costly but becoming cheaper, with companies from Microsoft to Sony creating products aimed at the everyday consumer.

DRONE DELIVERIES TAKE FLIGHT

Amazon ramped up its delivery technologies by testing its first shipment by drone. The delivery, placed online, took 13 minutes from the point of purchase to the drone's arrival at the doorstep. The capability is still limited to a small number of customers, but Amazon hopes someday to bring the technology to a majority of their customers.

THE POWER OF THE SUN

After 550 hours of flight and 25,000 miles of travel, Solar Impulse 2 touched down, completing the world's first solar-powered flight around the globe. The aircraft embarked from Abu Dhabi and 18 months later completed its round-trip. While the aircraft itself could have made the flight without stopping, the pilots needed to land every month to rest up before resuming. Future expectations for the aircraft is to fly solar powered around the globe on autopilot.

CHAMPIONS

U.S. DOMINATES RIO OLYMPICS

U.S. Olympians took home more gold from the 2016 Olympics than any other nation. 46 gold medals in all. That's nearly twice than second-spot Great Britain's 27 gold medals. Among the many national highlights, Michael Phelps became the most decorated Olympian of all time, Ashton Eaton won gold in men's decathlon, and the U.S. Women's Basketball team won gold. U.S. gymnast Simone Biles won 4 gold medals and secured her spot as the most decorated gymnast of all time.

U.S. RETURNS TO RYDER CUP VICTORY

For the first time since 2008, Team USA won the 41st Ryder Cup, held at Hazeltine National Golf Club in Minnesota. Phil Mickelson and J.B. Holmes secured the cup for the 12-man team.

SUPER BOWL 2017: ONE FOR THE RECORD BOOKS

The New England Patriots defeated the Atlanta Falcons 32-28, winning Super Bowl 2017. This year's Super Bowl broke records left and right. It featured the biggest comeback in its history, marked the first ever to push into overtime, and Patriots' Tom Brady is the first quarterback to take home 5 Super Bowl titles.

PITTSBURGH PENGUINS WIN THE STANLEY CUP

The Pittsburgh Penguins took home the Stanley Cup, defeating the San Jose Sharks, marking their 4th Stanley Cup win. They defeated the Sharks with a 3-1 victory, with right winger Phil Kessel leading the way, scoring 10 goals in the series.

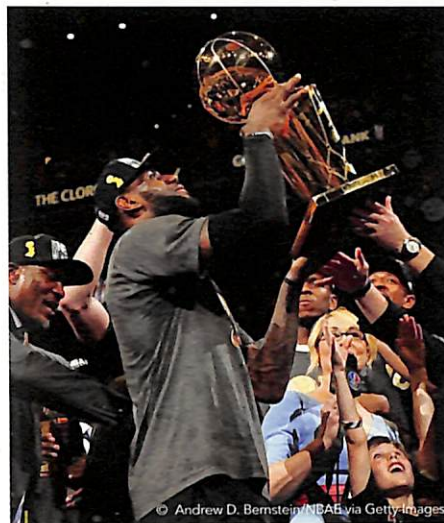

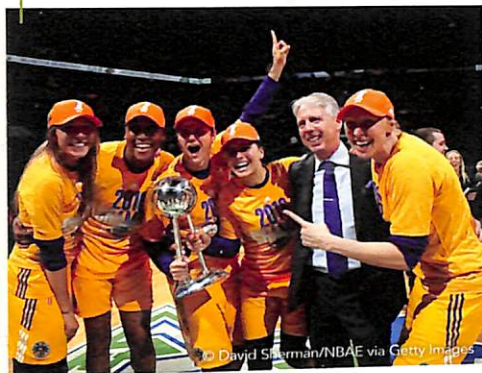

MID-ATLANTIC WINS LITTLE LEAGUE WORLD SERIES

In the 70th Little League Baseball World Series, the U.S. Mid-Atlantic team played against South Korea and won it all. The team clinched the series victory over South Korea in a final 2-1 win.

SPARKS TRIUMPH OVER LYNX IN WNBA FINALS

The LA Sparks beat the Minnesota Lynx in the WNBA Finals 3 games to 1. The team's first championship win since 2002 was, however, not without controversy. In a postgame review of late-game footage, WNBA officials determined that a late-game shot by Nneka Ogwumike "should not have counted due to a shot-clock violation, and that the referees improperly failed to review the play under the instant replay rules." Despite this commentary, the win officially stands, with the victory going to the Sparks.

CLEVELAND CAV'S AMAZING COMEBACK

The Cleveland Cavaliers won the NBA Finals, beating the Golden State Warriors 93-87 in game 7 of the NBA Finals. The win ended a 52-year drought for the Cavs, and also marked the team as the first to come back in the Finals from being down 3-1.

WIMBLEDON 2016

Serena Williams claimed the Wimbledon title for the 7th time in 14 years. The win marked Williams' 22nd major singles title. It also tied her with Steffi Graf for the Open-Era Grand Slam record.

THE CUBS WIN!

Winning their first championship title since 1908, the Chicago Cubs won the World Series. The 108-year drought came to an end when the Cubs beat the Cleveland Indians 8 - 7 in game 7. The two opposing teams represented the longest winless streaks in their respective leagues, with the Indians failing to win the World Series since 1948. In all, the final game pulled in 40 million viewers, the most since the final game of the 1991 World Series.

HARRY POTTER ON STAGE

One of the biggest franchises of the last two decades, J.K. Rowling's Harry Potter, broke from the page and the screen this year and onto the stage. The play "Harry Potter and the Cursed Child" opened in London's Palace Theater, and transported audiences into the world of an adult Harry Potter. Although the play can be seen by relatively few, the screenplay was published in book form over the summer, and was subsequently added to the bookshelves of millions of fans.

50TH ANNUAL COUNTRY MUSIC AWARDS

Among the big winners of the 50th Annual Country Music Awards, Garth Brooks scooped Entertainer of the Year, and Eric Church won Album of the Year. The award show's biggest and most tearful moment came when Randy Travis, who suffered a debilitating stroke three years prior, took to the stage to join performers in singing the last of his song "Forever and Ever, Amen."

GOTTA' CATCH 'EM ALL

Pokemon Go took the top spot for most-played mobile app game in history, clocking in over 500 million downloads and, at its peak in July, 21 million daily active users. That's more than Snapchat, Twitter, Instagram or Facebook. This trend quickly played out with 79% of players shelving the game by September.

FLIPPING OUT

The trick, known simply as "water bottle flipping," is one of the biggest crazes of the year. Take a partially filled bottle of water, hold it from its mouth, flip it through the air, and get it to stick its landing upright. As thousands of kids can attest, the trick requires finesse, control and tons of practice. The original water bottle flipping video that started it all racked up 6.6 million views in under five months.

THE YOUTUBE GENERATION

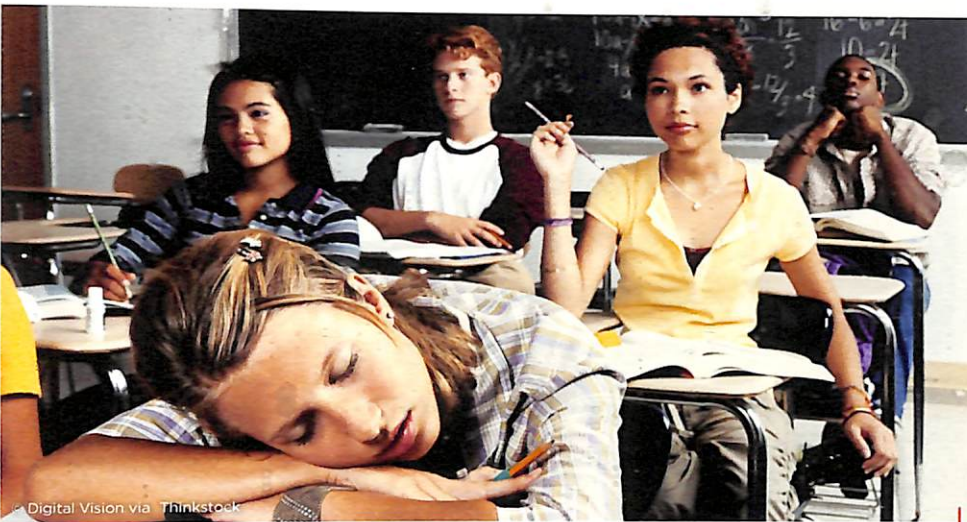

Traditional channel surfing is becoming a thing of the past, as the next generation of viewers find new ways to kick back and relax. Teens are now watching 2.5 times more YouTube than cable TV. This, while streaming services like Netflix continue to garner wider use, and once-exclusive cable networks like HBO begin their own online streaming platforms in an attempt to recapture audiences.

MEMES, MOST SEARCHED INTERNET TERM

According to Google Trends, which tracks the popularity of terms people search for on Google, "memes" is now the number one most searched word. And what exactly is a meme? It's an image with a catchy phrase or a humorous video. Memes aren't always merely silly though. Some are political, and some have important social messages. In any case, memes are everywhere these days, and it looks like they are here to stay.

WORLD GETS BUSY STAYING STILL

"The Mannequin Challenge," one of the biggest viral video phenomena of the year, drew participants from schools to stadiums to workplaces with its simple idea--freeze time and film it. Whether the situation was common or strange, in a large group or small, it meant everyone kept completely still, "mannequin-like," sometimes in elaborate poses, while a cameraperson roamed through the scene and filmed it. The resulting videos, often set to music, were the thing to watch this year.

EVERYTHING OLD IS NEW AGAIN

1980s and 1990s fashion is back. Walk the halls of any school and you'll see high-tops, overalls, birkenstocks, shirts slung around the waist, high-waisted jeans, flannels, backpacks, crop tops, and hoop earrings. Metallic lipstick, too, is getting its fair share of attention. It might not be a throwback, but it seems to pair well with the wider trend.
