"The little deer was born in a thicket deep in the woods. He lay curled beside his mother, and his eyes still were closed. Then he heard the birds singing and the chipmunks chattering. He opened his eyes.

Dedication

To the memories involved in our associations in the Star Valley High School — to all achievements attained, in the classroom and in the many activities which add to the school's enjoyment, we dedicate this book.

May the great union and spirit of the past be born in each of the years to come.

When Bambi was older, his mother took him to the meadow. Suddenly some stags appeared. Bambi, proud of his first set of antlers, trotted behind them trying to imitate them.

Senior Hop--first spring formal

Students contributed their talent to lend variety to the evening.

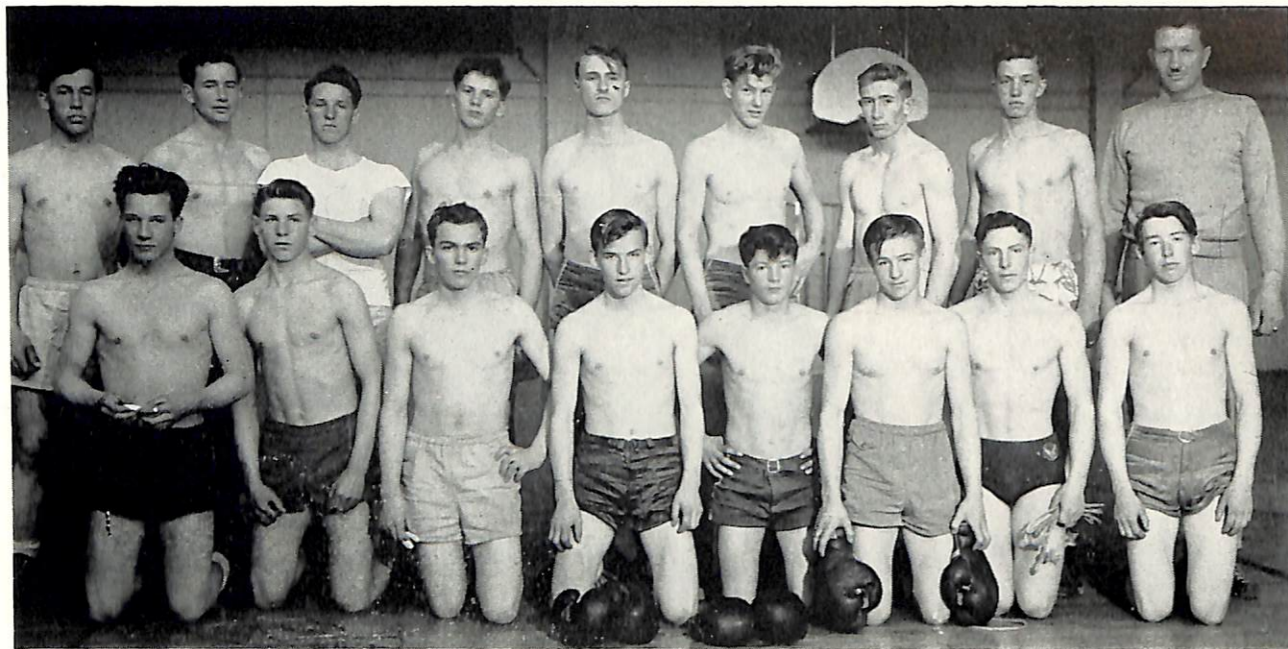

The outstanding event of the evening was an acrobatic dance by Mrs. Wayne Call.

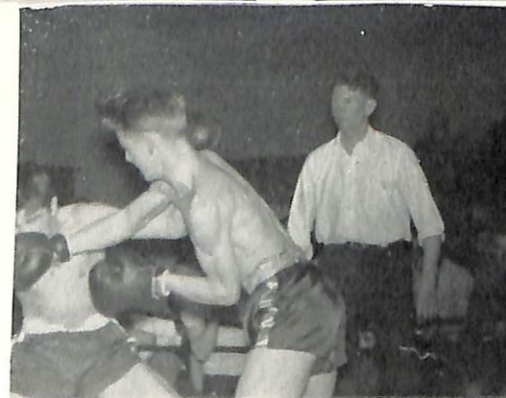

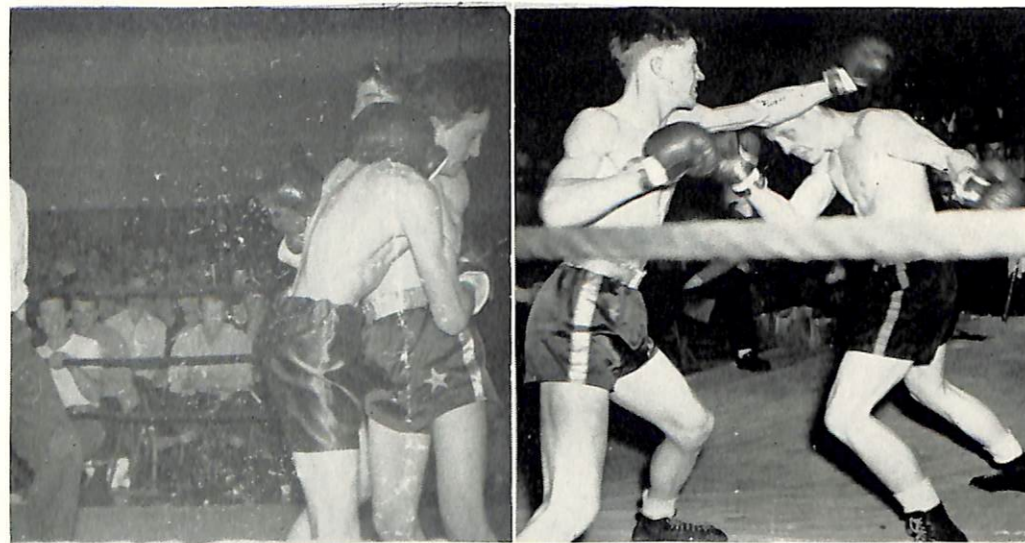

Suddenly a big buck emerged from the woods and challenged Bambi. Bambi charged fiercely with antlers lowered.

Queen

Elected by the entire student body as Queen of the 1948 Sta Va Hi is Miss Genevieve Johns. Known to all for her lovely smile and sparkling wit, "Jenny" is a Sophomore this year and hails from Smoot.

Her Attendants

Peggy Jean Call, a junior from Afton, has captured the hearts of everyone with her vivacious smile and platinum blond hair.

Elected by the Freshman class as their queen is pretty Colleen Livingston. This Alpine Miss has made a host of friends during her first year in S.V.H.S.

For lovely Dixie Clark from Etna this is the final year in S.V.H.S. Climaxing her many achievements was her election last spring as secretary of the student body, a position she has capably filled.
